DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1- 61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Monte Carlo in view of Kelly 5,882,258 as set forth in the previous office action and further in view of Same Game.

Claim 1 has now been amended to include a pair "and three or more adjacent game pieces". A popular electronic version of Monte Carlo is Same Game or Jawbreaker. In this game a player can select two or more pieces. To have allowed a persons to select three adjacent pieces in Monte Carlo would have been obvious in order to allow a player to remove more pieces during each turn.

With respect to claims 31 and 61, in Monte Carlo the cards are moved up to fill the spaces of the removed cards and not replaced as stated by applicant. This is considered to meet the limitations of "shuffling" as called for in the claims.

As to claim 60, the specification merely states that "deactivation...does not necessarily result in the removal" but is most certainly could. The plain meaning of deactivate is to make inactive or ineffective. As such the examiners interpretation that removing cards as shown by Monte Carlo meets this limitation by now making the cards inactive is considered fair.

Conclusion

Applicant's arguments filed 5/2/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive as set forth in the above grounds for rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3711

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
